Butterfly Blessings Nursery

After Many years in porcelain doll making and because I love the realism in the modern dolls as opposed to Antique reproduction dolls, I found it a natural progression to start making reborn dolls. A close friend invited me to make one with her whilst on a visit to her home in the USA a few of years ago, and further instruction after she came to visit me here in Australia. To me it is amazing how a blank kit can come to life in just a few hours of work and patience.

I feel confident I can pass on what I have learned on to others so I will teach you this fun Art of reborn babies and toddlers. Call for class times. Phone number is at the bottom of this page. Classes cost $15.00 per lesson plus supply cost.

Ti's Brushes and Tutorials

Have you ever asked yourself how the ancient artists such as J.D. Kestner Jr. cleaned porcelain greenware in their factories?

Did they breathe in the harmful dust? the short answer is NO they didn't, they used a method utilizing brushes and water.

The T.I.B.'s Technique

The T.I.B.s Technique of cleaning Porcelain greenware is patterned after the wisdom of the ancients, Tisha Ritter developed this technique after viewing a porcelain factory in the orient she went on to design a technique for the molds, porcelain and firing of our modern times. Tisha has tried and tested this method on her own reproduction dolls and has gone on to give seminars travelling all across the USA and Canada outlining the T.I.B.s Technique. She also had an article published in the "Doll Crafter" in 1998, The secret to the success of the method is in the brushes and the T.I.B.s Technique.

T.I.Bs Too

T.I.Bs Too begins where the T.I.B.s Technique of cleaning porcelain greenware ended it Hight lights repair work, add-ons and a unique way to customizing pieces from Dianna Effners commercial molds. Watch Tisha as she repairs cracks in a head, adds porcelain to create an eye lid that was melted away, eliminates pour lines with a simple few brush strokes and repairs a broken finger in minutes.

The T.I.B.s Too DVD shows close up how to place pieces together to create life-like products, She will also amaze you with her own technique for placing teeth into the greenware and porcelain fingernails onto a greenware hand all these alterations were done in the greenware so they are fired into place eliminating the need for glue plaster or plastic in just minutes.

Custom Pieces with T.I.B.'s

Most exciting of all is the technique for customizing pieces that are poured using Dianna Effners commercial molds, Tisha received permission from Dianna Effner allowing her to produce a segment of the DVD, in fact Dianna encourages everyone to use their talents and imagination to create beautiful portraits using pieces from her molds, watch while Tisha changes the shape of a face, adds a chin, reshapes ears into elf ears and adds dimples to chins and cheeks.

Dolls Sew Beautiful is the Sole Australian distributor for T.I.B.s brushes, tool and DVDs.

Diana Effner

Diana Effner has been designing and making dolls since the late 1970's. She moved into her studio, located in Jamestown, Missouri, in 1990. Here my assistant Geri and I spend our days making dolls and doing doll business. Here we also teach doll making and other related crafts. In 2008, we decided to introduce thedollstudio.com to provide a place where doll people can learn fine doll crafts and find quality dolls and supplies to enrich their doll hobby.

Enjoy! | Dianna Effner

*Donna & Kelly
RuBert*

Now living in Latham, Missouri with her family, Ms. RuBert has been captivated by painting and sculpting since early childhood. She studied fine arts in Europe and has visited countless museums there, always admiring the great works of the masters that still serve as her inspiration. Her dolls are celebrated for their incredibly lifelike sculpting and the innocent emotions they express. Her costumes are painstakingly detailed and often incorporate antique or custom-designed fabrics.

Jennifer Esteban

Jennifer Esteban originals began marketing molds of original dolls sculpted and created by Jennifer Esteban in Australia in 1988. In 1991, Jennifer migrated to the US and opened an office in California marketing her new dolls as Jennifer Esteban Originals. Molds were then being manufactured by Van Hellens Custom Mold Company in San Antonio, Texas, for the North American and European markets and in Melbourne for Australia. The company also produced and sold dolls on the Home Shopping Network based in St. Petersburg, Florida. A most popular limited edition vinyl doll kit, Amelia, sculpted by Jennifer, was manufactured and sold by Jennifer Esteban Originals.

Jennifer now lives once again in Australia and recently sold the exclusive worldwide rights to market her Jennifer Esteban Originals mold and pattern line to Charlotte Casperson of Childhood Fantasies molds and patterns.

"Ultra Chic" Porcelain slip

Because of it's stability Ultra Chic needs little or no propping, even with large dolls. Ultra Chic is made from only the finest ingredients and is totally natural. Simply thin with distilled or regular water...never use a slip thinner again. Because it is totally natural it can be shipped in the winter without fear of freezing and can also be reclaimed to decrease your cost and increase your profit margin.

Available in 21 beautiful flesh tones and 2 of the whitest doll porcelains available, colours have been made to match as close as possible to popular colours by Bell and Seeley. Each and every gallon is hand-strained through a 120 mesh screen. NEVER A BLACK SPOT! Pamper your doll collection with Ultra Chic and let your imagination go wild.

Over the past year we have had many customers asking what our colours compare to in both Seeley and Bell . Below is a comparison chart. Please keep in mind that Ultra Chic has no ball clay as do Seeley and Bell so the colours will ALWAYS be more clear and true, but we try and come as close as possible to matching your favorite colours.
